Father Daly Memorial Scholarship for Undergraduate Studies 2008-2009

The 'Father Daly Memorial Scholarship for Undergraduate Studies' is established in May, 2000 by Mr. Alan Ng, a past scholarship recipient of Wah Yan Trust Fund. This Scholarship aims to providing financial assistance to those promising Wah Yan student(s) who is / are short of funds to pursue to university studies, either locally or abroad. The scholarship will be for a maximum of three years and is renewable annually and is dependent on the applicant's family financial condition and his academic progress. The Administration Board of Father Daly Memorial Scholarship will judge this. It is intended to relieve students of as much financial anxiety throughout their three/four years of university education as possible. It is also intended to free them taking odd jobs and allow them to concentrate on their studies.

Further details of the scholarship are as follows:

- Name of Award : Father Daly Memorial Scholarship for Undergraduate Studies
- Duration of Award : Maximum up to 3 years renewable annually in the light of family financial conditions and academic progress. The Administration Board of Father Daly Memorial Scholarship will judge this.
- Value of Award : The Administration Board of Father Daly Memorial Scholarship will decide the amount of award for each successful applicant based upon the university composition fee, accommodation and personal expenses of a single student either locally or overseas and the applicant's family financial situation.
- Conditions of Award : Successful candidates for the scholarship will be required to comply with the conditions of awards should they decide to accept any award made under this scheme. In particular, these candidates must return to work in H.K. or other areas in China, or obtain employment with any entity or organization in H.K. for a minimum of 36 consecutive months immediately on completion of their study programme. Permission for a delayed return to Hong Kong to fulfil the employment condition or for waiver of such employment condition may be sought from the Administrative Board, who will consider the merits of the candidate's case. If the candidate fails to get such permission or to comply with the employment condition, he will be required to repay such sum, not exceeding the total value of the award so received, and upon such terms as the Administrative Board deems appropriate..
