How would the SLP link with university admission?

Universities will consider taking into account in their selection a broader range of information of student achievements in different areas and provide students the opportunity to demonstrate that they possess the range of competencies and personal qualities they will need to benefit from undergraduate education.
How would the SLP link with university admission?

In response to this, students should develop the SLP to provide comprehensive information about their performance in different domains.

Hence, the SLP has good reference value to universities.
Does the SLP include every single activity attended by a student?

No, it is NOT necessary.

Students should decide which activities are deemed to be significant and to be included/highlighted in their final profile report.
Quality, and not quantity, matters in presenting themselves.

Does the SLP include every single activity attended by a student?
No, it is NOT necessary.

An over-lengthy SLP could be a sign of incapability in presenting personal strengths concisely.
